

POISE

Corporate Improv Training with Mat Mailandt

Teamwork. Communication. Innovation. These three words are at the heart of every successful organization. The business world is fast paced. You need to respond to challenges and adapt to ever changing situations. Professional improvisation is exactly the same. Built with the tools of theatre and designed for the world of business our POISE program is the perfect way to build cohesion in your organization and have fun while doing it. Building connections amongst your employees also builds your bottom line.

POISE is:

Presence

Openness

Inspiration

Support

Engagement

Offered as a half day, full-day or two-day course POISE is all about working together and learning to think outside the box. Based on the improv fundamentals of acceptance, support and spontaneity our leadership team will work within your organizational framework to find positive solutions to ongoing challenges. You've got a great staff. Our role is to bring them out of their shells and help them become engaged and effective team players. Increased employee engagement means reduced turnover. When an organization is open to the cultivation of new ideas, you get the most out of your employees; better teamwork results in less stress and increased productivity.

Mat Mailandt has more than 10 years of improv and business experience. He has performed and taught improvisation across Canada, Germany, Norway and Spain. He's got the passion and background help you take your team to the next level with humour, confidence and POISE.
